Dear Customer,

This note is to inform you that we unfortunately must raise prices on certain select styles effective May 7, 2012. To assist you in this matter, we have attached a list of all those styles with increases.

At Body Wrappers/Angelo Luzio we continually work to provide you the most competitive costs possible. You will notice that these are selected styles and that we are doing our best to keep the remainder of our line at the best available prices present in the marketplace.

If you have any questions or comments please contact me at your convenience either through a phone call or email. We thank you as always for your continuing support and patronage.

Sincerely,

Michael H Lee
