

Robert Presents...Performance Slacks & Tee of 85% Nylon, 15% Spandex have a classic matte finish, are sturdy, wick moisture away from the body and can be machine washed. These ultra durable slacks designed by Robert Fairchild, New York City Ballet principal and star of the Broadway musical An American in Paris felt there was a great need for these stylish, comfortable pants that can be worn for practice as well as performance. The 96% Rayon, 4% Lycra® moveTECH™ Tee fabric that moves with the body, has a dancer's length design that stays inside the pant. Robert proudly states, "Every male dancer should own this practical dance set."
